

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

“Seductive tone on the rim of country & blues with power.”

John Apice (No Depression Magazine)

After touring Australia & Canada for over two decades, Horswood settled in the woods of Northern Ontario and wrote her latest release, “Bare Bones” (2020), which debuted at #3 on the iTunes singer-songwriter chart. Now in 2021, with a renewed lust for all things live music, the ever-versatile Horswood is back on the road, entertaining crowds as a solo, duo, trio & band.

PRESS QUOTES

“It’s a soulful album that sometimes recalls Dusty Springfield.”

TOM HARRISON (VANCOUVER SUN)

"Porcelain is the triumphant result of the experiences of world travels, mixing the country / roots 'bed' she was noted for lying in and adding a hint of gospel and blues stylisations that she's been drawn towards since moving to North America."

STEVIE CONNOR (BLUES & ROOTS RADIO, FATEA MAGAZINE UK)

Gina Horswood has become known as one of the most talented singer songwriters in Muskoka, switching seamlessly from her own music to rock classics and pop standards, much to the delight of the audience.

JEFF CARTER, HUNTERS BAY RADIO

All bookings please contact info@ginahorswood.com